Nat'l Education Day celebrated

GUWAHATI, Nov 12: The Department of Education of Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College yesterday celebrated the National Education Day in commemoration of the 129th birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Education Minister of independent India.

Delivering a lecture on the topic 'Transformation of education system: Its positive impact', which was organised by the Education Department of the college, Bedabrata Misra, Assistant Editor of Dainik Asam, stated that parents, teachers and students constitute a solid foundation in educating the students in a value-oriented way. Though the education system has changed over the recent years, yet the essence of education, in the real sense of the term, has remained the same.

Misra also recalled the selfless contribution of the likes of Sahityarathi Lakshminath Bezbaroa and Rupkonwar Jyotiprasad Agarwala in enriching the academic and cultural practices of Assam.

Book fair in city college

STAFF REPORTER

GUWAHATI, Feb 10: The Uma Charan Bania Library and Educational Centre of Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College, Guwahati, organised a book fair at the college campus recently as part of the College Week celebration.

The daylong event was inaugurated by Dr Sikhamoni Konwar, principal of the college. In her inaugural speech, Dr Konwar stressed the need to promote the reading habit among students and said that there cannot be a better friend for them than a good book. "A book acts as a friend, philosopher and guide in our life," she added. Reading books not only increases our knowledge, it also inculcates in us virtues and qualities like patience and perseverance and develop faculties like imagination and creativity, Dr Konwar continued.

Speaking on the occasion, librarian Gitika Das said that a book and a digital book are equally important for the present generation. "However, digital books should not compete with books, rather they should complement the latter," she added. Several book sellers and publishers attended the fair along with students, teachers and other visitors.
